TIGER M Comment Corner – Introduction & Start! =D (FIRST ISSUE EVER IN SERIES)

How is it going everybody?! =D Very Well I most certainly hope! ^_^
First off, please allow me to wish You a VERY Happy Valentine's Day 2014! =D (2/14/2014!)
This is my brand new Journal and it has been decided to name this Journal "TIGER M Comment Corner!"

The release date for this Journal was originally going to be on Groundhog Day this Year (The second of February 2014) but the decision was to release the TIGER M Comment Corner January 2014 along with the TIGER M Comment Corner for THIS month (February 2014). The official release date of this Journal is indeed Valentine's Day 2014 – the only one like it. ^_^ February 14th, 2014 that is, the Second month of this year on the 14th Day during the 2014th year of Our Current Eon (A.D.! ^_^) Gotta Love It!
So what better day to release than a day that like Christmas platonic and passionate love is celebrated?

Now what makes this Journal different from my other Journals? Well each Journal specialize a specific subject matter. The Subject matter of this Journal? Specific and Select Streams! =D Not like rivers! XD Talking about "comment broadcasting" streams like those You find on Social Networks like YouTube, Facebook and Twitter! =^_^= Today we call them "Social Networks" and at one time "BBS Boards" and "Message Boards" were often spoken of as they still are today: Communities and Chat Rooms. Rather, Alternatives to direct E-Mail and Mailbox Messages have become the "Social Norm" which ROCKS! ^_^ (Now people are FINALLY no longer convinced that "Net-heads" are Anti-Social Degenerates with 0 Life.) [Actually... We "Geeks" have quite a bit of HP. =3]

Just as before with my "TIGER M Follow Me Hyperlink Journals" (which will also be continued), once a month, these Journals will chronicle activity participated in the month prior. However, instead of sharing "Hyperlinks" with descriptions of where those often blue-babies lead – this Journal will share which Social Circles online that I am apart of along with a link to where my comments on that site may be found not only for "accuracy" but so You can participate in the conversation too if you'd like ^_^ . Isn't Our World Amazing? =D Indeed we have come a long way from going to war every week and for this personally I believe We should all be very grateful for human headway. Progression tho' is a constant.

In order to allegorize this, each "Comment" will be presented in a "Stream." That "Stream" number will continue into the following Journal in the "TIGER M Comment Corner" series so each Journal comments will continue from the last. Some of the comments are in response to people that I know. Others are comments in response to people who I had not met prior to that conversation. Most responses and comments will associated to a "Video" or "Tweet" that I found interesting. This is fairly unique for me because I only check Social Networks periodically although I have various accounts. Please enjoy! =D Happy Valentine's Day Today and Now and onward past-the-future! =) Love & Peace. ^_^

Awesome job Valentin Delov Bajkov and Anita Dorner for giving us a "fun and geeky" Holiday memory for the 2013! ^_^ I'm glad to see Chuck Norris is finally answering into the "Holy Chuck Norris Is Awesome Jokes" and catering image to we Gamers!
(First "World of Warcraft" 'I Approve of this message' and now this! XD Awesome!)

I'm certain putting this together took a WHOLE lot of time, energy, effort, planning, and scheduling, and and twice as proud to hear an Enya song (" Only Time ") I grew up hearing over and over again was selected as the background track! =D

Delov Digital ROCKS! Valentin D.B. Rocks! =D Anita D. Rocks!
Benence Ivancsics and Zsolt Pal ROCK! And of COURSE Chuck Norris ROCKS!

All viewers of this video also ROCK for such a positive response
So Merry Christmas all and have an astounding New Year too! ^_^

Before "The Fast And The Furious" there was Malcolm Campbell...
Before "Michael Knight" and "Kit" there was Malcolm Campbell...
Before "The Need For Speed..." Okay! Okay! ...Question... if we know that we build off of the backs of giants and every contribution to Our World is because of what came before (even if but our family and parents biologically speaking)...
What the FREAKIN' FLIP is wrong with our U.S. music industry STILL taking down Teenager's and passionate artists' "Dance Video" contributions and posting having Google and YouTube put up "This Video Has Been Taken Down on Copyright Grounds" ... Our U.S. Music Industry could learn from our U.S. Auto Industry... Our WORLD'S Gaming Industry and OUR WORLD'S Film Industry which embraces sharing stories like this.
Many thanks for this story Hennessy US

This is how I learned of Malcolm Campbell for the first time in my life today... =)

This is an EXCELLENT jazz rendition of some of my very favorite Studio Ghibli Themes and Scene songs! ^_^ Hayao Miyazaki in my very humble opinion is today's very modern "Walt Disney." Joe Hisaishi as Bach, Beethoven and Mozart ^_^ I grew up viewing "Kiki's Delivery Service," "Nausicaa" and "Princess Mononke."

Spirited Away (Sen to Chiharo) a Masterpiece. ^_^
My Neighbor Totoro -- Astonishing! ^_^

These Jazz mix renditions of thematic excellence -- no question -- Amazing!! =)

Many thanks "StudioGhibliMusic" for sharing this superb mix with our world and many thanks to Studio Ghibli as an organization and production company -- each and every employee, every single worker, artist and marketer -- who has made these memories to stay in our world! ^_^ Audio and visual =)

Merry Christmas 2013 everybody! All viewers, all Uploaders, and all creators! =D

What a lovely extremely excellent Jazz set! =) Full of classic and standard tunes!
Listened to it twice! And to think I came here for the cake! =3 (Seriously, the appetizing picture of the strawberry shortcake is what attracted me to this jazz set)

The tea is very nice too at the open shot and this relaxing sundry of melody is one reason I will not ever "Fall out of love" (be that even possible...) with audio and music

LewisLuong does it again! =D What an Amazing and memorable jazz music set! =)
Awesome Job buddy! =3 That Jazz rendition of "Auld Lang Syne" is REALLY great!
The one that plays as the second track around the 20 minute 40 second mark =)

The music video and digital visual effects are VERY nice and a great touch up for an already amazing soundtrack upload. =) Certainly an amazing set for the Holiday Season and I am more than glad to see that you're still an active member here =)

This is a PHENOMENAL concert and I'm glad to see that Joe is still doing well! =)
By the way, am I the only one who thinks "Joe Higashi" from King of Fighters when I see the name "Joe Hisaishi?" Both men are astounding LEGENDS to me. =)

The part where sir Miyazaki walks up to the stage and hands flowers to Je for this Studio Ghibli awesomesauce hoenstly is a defining moment in OurStory
(In my most humble of opinions)

Not because "That's so gay" but because "that's so cool!" that the platonic passion of anime and music are the driving creative force that has allowed this SUPER company that I grew up with (Nausicaa is still one of my favorites as is Princess Mononoke which some say is a "revisit" to "Nausicaa of The Valley of The Wind" and indeed there are some similarities between the two animated film masterpieces)

Many thanks JoeHisaishi2008 for taking the time to upload this video and please be certain whether you're "The Actual Music Director And Pianist Joe Hisaishi" or not (to me it honestly doesn't matter -- I'm very thankful that you took the time to share this phenomenal one-of-a-kind concert with our world and am thankful to take part) have yourself a VERY Merry Christmas 2013 and a SUPER New Year 2014! ^_^

The part where the young lady in the red dress leads the song is SUCH a testament to how happiness, high energy and honest glee can overcome even the most serious of situations. =) The smiles on the faces of the other singers as well as the "general energy" of the crowd and fellow musicians is simply just "tangible..." even through the screen (which honestly I do prefer although I do go to concerts too =3)

Add yourself another * Like * in this video and please keep up the amazing work and awesome contributions to Our World Studio Ghibli! ^_^
Also many thanks for aiding to launch the career of Our World friend Director Hideki Anno. =3
Neon Genesis Evangelion is another one of my favorites that has "Ghibli Links." =3

Face Forward To The Future! =D Happy New Year 2014 Everybody!
And A Very Merry Christmas ^_^

Merry Christmas Everybody! =D I'm REALLY glad to see that there is going to be a SECOND How To Train Your Dragon! ^_^ Many Thanks for sharing AwesomenessTV and EXCELLENT job dDreamworks and Staff! =D I still us "PetS" / PeSt" analogy!

REALLY like the personality of Hiccup's Dragon pal in this film and the "proof" of the bond that they share and the new characters seem intriguing as well. =3 I also like how films like this and Disney's Pirates of The Caribbean and Anime like Neon Genesis Evangelion and Blue Gender -- tend to turn the "antagonist" of progress towards the the subject of the selfish element of humanity. Hicup and the new "Mother" character helped to forge an alliance with once thought of as "Pests" which became "Friends" and "Pets" and now it looks like the "Big Final Boss" (antagonist xD) in this film is another person who simply wants to keep all progress to himself!

Indeed a symphony of an attribute in our current world -- which simply "is."

With that said -- Happy New Year 2014 Boys and Girls of Our World and have a VERY Merry Christmas! =3 Be good and giving not selfish! =3 ...otherwise Santa may let a Dragon named Smaug visit your house instead!

Merry Christmas Everybody! =D Reading some of your comments, wanted to say:

" Networking " is coded into the very Existence of Our World, Our Actions And Our Society (human and otherwise) Anytime anything is done, essentially we are promoting and providing awareness however strong however weak when we talk or type or do anything that Our Amazing World allows. (Take free will not for granted)

We live an amazing world! Be certain what you say is how you wish to be perceived.

It is a joy, especially on Christmas Eve to see an uptempo and positive experience among the more negative and criticizing voices.

Be we decide to criticize others (as Fisho D. did towards mrlordvideo) or uphold and praise (as " mrlordvideo " did towards this excellent video posted by " YouTube Spotlight "--many Thanks =3)--action is as action is. Our World has been this way.

Why people go to parties (in the physical world and in the digital world).

Why people start book clubs and read books to talk about those books.

Why people take the time to comment on videos like we are all doing right now. =)

Even if content creators-- as are we all are whether we post uploads online or not =]

Although I honestly only know 2 of the people in this video -- what's important is that everyone is laughing and smiling and having a good time -- in a world plagued by hunger, hatred, discrimination, and one-sided stereotyping -- it is nice to laugh and smile and celebrate the Joyful things in text, talk or video. ^_^

Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year Everybody! =D

Focus on the positive things in life and stave off the jealous impulses and the world will open up to you! Joy To The World and Happy New Year 2014! =D

She is butt-naked. She is in space. She is on another planet outside of earth.
She is representing a chillout electro music set post by MrLemillica2 by AstroPilot.
Indeed we live in an amazing world. When I was 1 years old, I used to get CDs and before that Vinyl and cassette tapes largely because of the "Image " on the cover.

As time has moved forward, we have made it to an age that I am glad to be part of that continues to celebrate music of all kinds; film of all kinds; Art of all kinds; both in our physical world which made all of this possible in our modern Digital Universe.

We the listeners -- we the viewers -- we the creators -- we the artists -- are piloting an amazing world of which we are all part and give part our time (valuable resource) to not for the financial gain or promise of fame -- but rather our passion for our world.

What once was the "Cover Art" and "Vinyl Record Cover" or "CD Photograph" or "Image on the Jewel Box" now represents each and every live DJ set, Musician song chill and party playlist not only on YouTube but in Our World. And it is Awesome!

Today I'm 29 years old. As early as age 12 (I was born in '84) I saw this happening. BBS Boards were only the start.

They called us "Anti-Social." They labelled us "Net-Heads."
Now we build "Social Networks" and are "Digital Natives" to Palfrey and Gasser.
I am proud to see our world evolve and most certainly hope our parents (and theirs) embrace this amazing world and the greatest innovation of human existence since "The Industrial Revolution" instead of slapping "Copyright Infringement" on each new freedom founded and shared. But ah, the flow of OurStory is not ever subtle.

Every passionate opinion belongs -- otherwise it simply would not be.

I'm simply glad to see that this set has not been taken down and hope will not be.

Thank You for sharing MrLemillica2
Many thanks to AstroPilot for the awesome music! =)
Super Thanks to the original creators of YouTube for shaping service our world loves!

Hmn. =3 I have my disagreements fore some just like AstroPilot chill sets.

But the image is indeed very attractive, and I like that you speak for yourself.

Image is an important factor of decision, and whether you clicked on the video because you dig the "textual" makeup of the words utilized to describe the set or because there is in-fact a butt-naked lady walking on a foreign planet and the idea of the ideal image intrigues you (that's a lot of "i's" =3 Information!)

The ending result is that you ended up on this link -- and hopefully enjoyed the fact that you took the time to click this link for whatever reasons bought you.

Keep in mind that there are such thing as "Lesbian Women" and "Women" who see themselves in the image that find classic art like "Birth of Venus" and the very image representing this electro chill set equally as attractive. ^_^

The allure of Sex is indeed a very powerful motive for attraction, but the fact that you are unable to actually approach the woman in the image (physically) also fuels freedom's response. If you were on that planet and this very same woman were standing in that exact same pose playing this exact same set -- for better or worse you'd likely not approach her so readily. Perhaps you would but would subconsciously question her motives. Who she is or was does not play into the factor of simply clicking a digital image though. =3

So again -- Image. Trumps. Reality.

Only the Insane have issue with this.

You're most certainly entitled to your opinion. ^^; But Cheetan... not everyone thinks "DAMN NATURE! YOU SCARY." Not everyone is from the Ghetto. =3
(or wants to be perceived as from a streets or rough background)

It's pretty funky that the "Google" Translator kicked in on your comment =)
If you hit "Translate" the only word it changes is "DAT" to "That" hahahah

Not picking at your choice of words or how you share your shapes of thought -- simply find it amusing that the Google Translator is battling Ebonics! XD (And I can say that and not be perceived as "racist" or "hateful" because God seemed to have decided that this lifetime around I would be born a guy "spawned in" North American with African Heritage and Native American roots

Peace & Merry Christmas =3

Indeed an excellent mix of classic Christmas Carrol memorable melodies ^_^

Honestly with the inclusion of Jazz, Orchestral, Ballad and relaxing Standards-- the Yule Log and "gentle crackling" of the warm fire is a great addition to this set =3

Merry Christmas Everybody and have an amazing New Year for the Y2K one-four! =)

This is an excellent commercial. =) The content of the commentary is phenomenal and as a person born in a family who holds similar values to the Fitzgeralds (WOW... my mother who holds a PH.D Doctorate in English has also said just that: Education is something no one can take from you" over and over again).

Personally I have been blessed to spend time "on-campus" at University but now because of my career path (Electronic Dance Music Producer, Writer, Performer DJ) although I am not currently a student of Phoenix University, I do now learn via online college systems and educational courses and so can further relate to this video. =)

The fact of the matter is that education is education. To me, wherever you learn what you learn (whether you have the income to go to college or simply "Google" things)-- the desire to know and decision to learn the things you do not know is admirable. =)

Merry Christmas everybody and a very Happy New Year 2014! ^_^
This goes true to Fitzgeralds, the University of Phoenix staff & founders and You! =3

This is an excellent idea and superb program University of Phoenix. =3
Can't help to think that you're likely reading some of the comments of users and viewers of your videos and in turn, putting plans into action which is awesome! =)

Keep listen to your current and potential students and I'm certain Universities like Phoenix and other colleges specializing in accredited online education will surely positively shape Our World's awesome future and outlook on how learning is done!

FAFSA and the North American Regional Scholarship "HOPE" run kind of like this.
Even the 2.5 GPA System is a link. ^_^ Keep it up and keep staying awesome! =D

Merry Christmas everyone at University of Phoenix and around Our Awesome World!

This was absolutely great and my favorite part in this one is the "Holiday Message."
This is one of the few "Epic Rap Battles of History" rappers team up for good of all!

I really dig that it's like "Allied Forces against Adolph Hitler" in this track! xD
Also dig the music change (beat switch-up) around the center before Death shows!

Good job excellent work and hope you will keep doing these! ^_^ Stay Super! =3

Merry Christmas WatchMojo jo jo ! =3 This is the first video I've seen by ya =)
Came here from "ULTRA MUSIC FESTIVAL TV" and really glad I clicked! =D
In "The Sims, OH MY GOSH! O.O "the "New Born Infants" look like something from "Aliens" or "The Exorcist" crawling around with those um... 'adult anime' looking tentacles hovering above them! o.o
Haven't ever played "The Sims" games. =3

Be sure to checkout "Sonic The Hedgehog Glitch" "Die if run too fast." It's an uncommon glitch that doesn't get a lot of attention (I learned about it on YT -- haven't ever experienced it myself) where if you run too fast, you basically just -- Boom!
Sonic loses a life like he got hit without any rings and the level restarts--it's wild! o.o

Merry Christmas 2013 Google! =D And a VERY Happy New Year 2014! ^_^
Many thanks for sharing this video and the super Street View technology. ^_^
My curiosity may not be answered for some time, but I wonder... how do you decide the difference between what is "Important Data" and "Not-so-important" Data...

I notice only recently "Google" has gone from "http" to "https" which used to be available to banks, government official organizations and financial institutions.
Not sure where all of this will go in the next ten years or so -- but hope for the best.

Trust is essential to any form of progression, and I like that your offices trust the world and public enough to share some of the things that Google does.
Stay Awesome and enjoy this year and next and on into the future =)
