TIGER M Comment Corner! – Living & Streaming! (SECOND ISSUE IN SERIES 😊)

Hey everybody! =D How Are You Doing? Very Well I most certainly hope. ^_^
This month is the first month, that “TIGER M Comment Corner” is going to be publicly released! =)
The idea honestly began last Christmas at the very end of 2013 while discussing my likes and passions about fellow YouTube user and Twitter talker’s comments and original content while chatting online. The first edition of this series covers the comments and conversations that I participated in online for the month of “December” and goes “Stream 1” through “Stream 36.” This “TIGER M Comment Corner” continues the Stream and begins at “Stream 37” and goes on through “Stream 74.” =)

Next month will continue from “Stream 74.”

The general gist behind “TIGER M Comment Corner” is to share comments that are posted to Social Nets all in one place for the pleasure of any reader in eBook form. =) This Journal like all of my Journals as of this writing, are completely free and hopefully fun for all to read. =) When I comment, my comments are from the heart and at the same time, I do my best to stay interesting in online conversations much like it seems I apparently am (for some reason... O.O) told I’m interesting in face-to-face conversations. =) The “MASS EMOTICONS” that I use by the way, honestly are just how I type. It’s simply how I think. Honestly have a story or two about how I type being criticized for including Emoticons and spaces (?) but in general, reception and response is either one of positive disposition or absolute awe. In the physical, I can smile a lot when I’m happy, and apparently that generates itself onto the comments I type. (Somehow.)

Prior to “Friendster,” “Hi5,” “Myspace,” “Ning!” and “YouTube” and “Twitter”—there was this habit that I once possessed to “copy-paste” ALL of the writing that I would do on message boards and in chatrooms and then place them inside of a “Microsoft WordPad,” “Corel WordPerfect” or “Microsoft Word” Document and then keep the contents by moving the files onto a 3-and-a-half-quarter-inch floppy disk. (Remember those? Some people reading this may honestly have not have SEEN one of them. =3 ‘Tis k.)

Later, when the highest selling CD of all time was published (Blank CD-Rs =3) and External Hard Drives began to replace Floppy Diskettes all together (alongside the “Thumb Drive”) the data that did not get lost was transferred and to this day, I still have quite some conversations on “old-school” Social Nets (then simply just covered as scary “Chat Rooms” in periodic new stories about “anti-social” citizens...) during the time I spent in places like “Bemanistyle” and “Furnation” (Yup ^_^) in the early 2000s. In the Mid-90s, all of my family’s surfing was done on 4 computers on 28.8K modem that was made available to the public on the then VERY-HIGH-END Personal Computers at Marine Corps Logistics Base. (Also where I used to rent “Vinyl Records” from—Madonna and MC Hammer—Ztop and Envogue... but that’s another story. ^_^)

Please Enjoy These Memories Also Feel Free To Participate In The Conversations Yourself Too! ^_^

What a sweet and relaxing set! =D Been listening to this non-stop for FOUR Days! And I mean Non-stop! Partly because I wanted to remember to rate and comment! Indeed, the opening classic Jazz harmony is a GREAT opener aruthimania0220! ^_^

One of my favorite songs that I was not familiar with before listening to this set, comes in RIGHT at the 11:03 mark! Honestly, this kind of beautiful music I generally only hear in Drama Anime series and romantic screenplays from the pre-80's era! Honestly, the tune starting around 11 minutes sounds much like something composed by Hayao Miyazaki's "Go-To" Maestro and pianist for Ghibli Studio anime "Joe Hisaishi." The "Lobby-esque" music is simply just magnificently beautiful! =^_^=

Perhaps the most "memorable" melody that I had been exposed to is the jazz rendition of "Moonlight Shadow" that comes in at the 41:52 mark! ^_^ Very honestly, I first heard this song on Dance Dance Revolution 5th Mix originally WAY back a decade ago when I first started at 19 ears old! It's SO awesome that almost EXACTLY one decade later, I hear this fabulous jazz rendition of the song I used to think was a "Dance Club" song -- until I came to realize there are lots of these. But this is the very first set I have ever heard a JAZZ rendition of this song -- And it is BEAUTIFUL!

It's unfortunate that the set does not have a "Tracklist" but at the same time, the pleasing music in-of-itself is a fine mix that is very well composed and very well mixed and feels almost like "a single just-over-an-hour" song as the full mix is!

Many Thank You's for taking the time to upload this, aruthimania0220 and a VERY HAPPY Belated "New Years 2014" to everyone in Our Amazing World! =D

Stay ROCKIN' ALL! =D
Or Jazzin' and chillin' out. ^_^

ICONIC! =D AWESOME to see this this year! =D Many thanks for doing this FOX and many thanks for posting this to YouTube Animation Domination! ^_^ Indeed this is homage to "Studio Ghibli" at its "Springfield-Finest" ! ^_^ Was funny--but pleasing!

Shortly after seeing "Studio Ghibli" celebrate their 25th Anniversary JUST LAST Year during Christmas Time, it is a joy to start this year being reminded that "Right Now -- two Nations" that once were at war physically in the past -- now digitally and physically -- are at peace and showing hoamge to one another. =) [The "Right Now" Ref is an "AMV" "Anime Music Video" ref some of you may get]

The "Cat Bus" from Totoro and the "Spirited Away" esque "other-realm" bodies in the street are certainly captivating in the opening -- but the "Kiki's Delivery Service" and "Howl's "Moving Castle" references (even Laptual! XD) were VERY well done! ^_^

"Princess Mononoke Hime" was the first Hayao Miyazaki film that I ever saw. that lead me to want to see "Nausicaa" and "Totoro" and my brothers, sister and siblings grew up watching "David The Gnome" and "Voltron" and "Maya The Bee!" ^_^ So when I saw that the yellow four-fingered toons of Springfield were refered to by the title "Anime" -- I was curious of the scope that would be covered. =3

Just about every popular "Hayao Miyazaki" film showed up and was covered! ^_^ Speaking of Nausicaa! =3 Didn't see the reference that launched Hideki Anno's career and studio (GAINAX) and helped to make "Neon Genesis Evangelion" a Household name. However, the flow of this brief animation was very well done and covered a LOT of great homage =3

The collaboration between Anno and Hayao Miyazaki: Nausicaa of The Valley of the Wind may not have happened, but the music is RIGHT on cue and the ethereal feel of this homage video honestly has touched my heart and lead my face ot smile. =)

Many thanks for sharing this FOX and thank You for posting Animation Domination!

Stay supreme and Everyone PLEASE enjoy the Brand New Year 2014! =^_^=

Tamera Mowry, Your strength is great for dealing with the negative side of human nature. Many thanks for broadcasting and posting this Oprah and OWN =) Honestly, bias just seems to be a part of some people. Even DJ MAG (for music!) gets bias. But on the exterior and details we can see:

I personally think that a lot of the comments and jealousy that are mentioned in this broadcast point to the insecurity some feel. Although I do not know the source of the comments, my guess is that 90 percent of the "Naysayers" and people launching hateful statements are NOT MARRIED at all or are suffering in their personal lives. Romantic relationships are not the only place this exists. (That is, bias over "image" "difference" and "physical makeup")

My humble suggestion is that for anyone in this same situation, keep in mind that seldom ever does criticism target anyone besides the ones who dish it "If I did it I..." and "If I were You I would think" are simply comparisons of the speaker's self. Selfishness is the "breeding pool" of Jealousy.

Just live your life and be happy. =)

Congratulations on your marriage Tamera Mowry and Adam Housley.
Remember that Happiness is a decision. Don't let others decide for You.

Happy New Year and remain amazing everyone =)

Cheers to Our ever diverse World that will be how it will be through and through!

Peace & Love

She is butt-naked. She is in space. She is on another planet outside of earth.
She is representing a chillout electro music set post by MrLemilica2 by AstroPilot.
Indeed we live in an amazing world. When I was 1 years old, I used to get CDs and before that Vinyl and cassette tapes largely because of the " Image " on the cover.

As time has moved forward, we have made it to an age that I am glad to be part of that continues to celebrate music of all kinds; film of all kinds; Art of all kinds; both in our physical world which made all of this possible in our modern Digital Universe.

We the listeners -- we the viewers -- we the creators -- we the artists -- are piloting an amazing world of which we are all part and give part our time (valuable resource) to not for the financial gain or promise of fame -- but rather our passion for our world.

What once was the "Cover Art" and "Vinyl Record Cover" or "CD Photograph" or "Image on the Jewel Box" now represents each and every live DJ set, Musician song chill and party playlist not only on YouTube but in Our World. And it is Awesome!

Today I'm 29 years old. As early as age 12 (I was born in '84) I saw this happening. BBS Boards were only the start.

They called us "Anti-Social." They labelled us "Net-Heads."
Now we build "Social Networks" and are "Digital Natives" to Palfrey and Gasser.
I am proud to see our world evolve and most certainly hope our parents (and theirs) embrace this amazing world and the greatest innovation of human existence since "The Industrial Revolution" instead of slapping "Copyright Infringement" on each new freedom founded and shared. But ah, the flow of OurStory is not ever subtle.

Oh My GOSH this is an AWESOME Jazz and Chillout Set Maria B! =D Many thanks for taking the time to upload and sharing! =^_^= You know... my favorite is that track about "I Got My Power Back, I'm Freeeee!" Anyone know what it's called?

This is the VERY first set I've EVER heard that song in and I listen to music for a living! Although my career path seems to be djing the electronic dance music stuffs, (Which indeed I DO enjoy making and sharing! =3) I dig and respect just about every genre so anytime a song hits like that, I like to learn the artist name and song title =)

The image is EXTREMELY intriguing and I saved it to comp. =^_^=
Something straight out of a Jazz wonderland that butterfly on that saxophone surely!

For the past three days I've been listening to this set while reading a Dale Carnegie book and it has made the experience almost magical =) Many thanks for sharing this superb set with Our World Maria AWESOME B! =D Stay Yourself! =D

Reid Stefan! WOW! This is a PHENOMENAL Remix m8 serious ASTOUNDING! =D
I've spun and played this song now some over DOZEN times with HUGE response each and every time Your amazing remixed record is put on. Got a "song story" too.

The first time I heard this track was honestly in a YouTube DJ Set. I was playing a game of Blizzard Entertainment's StarCraft 2: Heart of The Swarm with my older brother who works with the awesome Aerospace and Aeronautical company Boeing.

We were having a tough time playing doubles (a 2 versus 2) against the "HARD" level on the computer "A.I." Skirmish Mode that Battlenet offers to players.

My established base had been attacked twice relentlessly as had my brother's.

He was playing Terran (humans), I was playing the Protoss (Cyber/Digital Aliens).

I play "Random" for the record though and allow the system to select my group.)

Anyway, we were leaking Morale as a HUGE mixed Zerg (Biological Alien) force and large shielded Protoss Force, the same as my group-- hit us Simultaneously on a HUGE Two Versus Two Planet. Then this song came on.

During the opening I was thinking like, "What is this?"

My older brother established a second base and his group of upgraded marines

Assisted my only base (known as a "Protoss Nexus") from being blown to golden cybernetic bits prior to hearing this song in the DJ Set. Long story short... Around the 3 minute 54 mark of Your " Lady Gaga - Applause (Reid Stefan Remix) "

We had begun our counter attack.

MAXED out 200/200 the Protoss Carriers and Void Rays I guided OBLITERATED our opposition alongside my biological brother's (literally -- MY ACTUAL BROTHER not " bro" as in " best friend " or " gaming bro ") on-tempo and in-time with the tune of Your cool uptempo Remix of "Applause." It's almost indescribable how amazing that moment was because of ALL of the elements that lead up to! XD But the Carrier's speed upgraded mini ships (Interceptors) flying out SUPER FAST looked like they were "dancing" with high energy to the song remix as they fired "Neon Lights" of utter destruction down onto the World-Eating Zerg hatcheries to the beat and tempo of the drum, bass and "A-a-a-a-a-a-a-ApLauSe~E" as the vocal octaves in Your Remix squeaked higher and higher and higher XD

My "big brother" (literally. ^_^) pushmarched with Thors (HUGE "Gundam Wing" / "Transformer" Style Robots) Marines and Air Force Hovercrafts known as Banshees piloted by women during Our Joint bout on a Digital Planet over one weekend. =)

We Won. ^_^ Your Reid Stefan " Lady Gaga - Applause " Remix bounced beat on into the next song in the 3 Hour 15 Minute Electro Remix DJ Set Your Remix was featured in.

My older brother went back to his family and two kids in the "Physical World" and prepped for the following day to work the U.S. Air Force Reserves he does still in addition to his other Aeronautical collaboration. Tiger went back to completing an article and poring over an original song that had been created just prior to our weekly family digital meet in Blizzard Entertainment's "Closed Space" ("Sealed Reality" =3) in Cyberspace. =3

By the way, many grats on the recognition for Your Remixes sir Stefan! =D

This is the FIRST (and certainly NOT the " Last ") remix I have ever heard from You and is how I became aware of your musical contributions to Our World. =)

Shoutout to You sir Stefan, DJs Alex & Styline, and Lady Gaga for this superb Song! The 3 Hour 15 minute DJ Set I credit for both audibly AND visually listing (WRITING DOWN THE NAME OF THE TRACK in the Description =3) are the two amazing DJs Alex & Styline.

I heard heard Your Reid Stefan Applause Remix (a " cell " in the " body of the Remix " set that was surely a highlight to me) in " Best of Electro & House Music 2013 " as mixed by Alex & Styline for ElectroDanceMovement here on YouTube.

And this isn't an ad. XD I do not work for Blizzard nor am I Alex or Styline.

I personally simply take these things quite seriously.

What was being listened to while doing what and who all was part of it (Personally, Platonically, Physically, Psychologically, Digitally...)

And simply wanted to Thank You and all involved in a very memorable experience. ^_^

Just like a " Music Video " I suppose -- thinking of that game of StarCraft 2 (especially the Carriers and marching Thors XD) happens each time I play this. =)

Speaking of games and experiences ... Thank You Google for the " ad association " while I searched for " Lady Gaga Applause Reid Stefan Remix. "

I learned of a remarkable game that showed up in an ad that I may someday start...

The World is only getting better and Better and BETTER! =^_^=

Enjoy 2014 Everybody! =D

Stay SUPERB Reid Stefan! =D

Keep up the Applause Lady Gaga!

Keep spinning DJ Alex and DJ Styline! =D

Maison And Dragen! THIS Remix has DEFINITELY put You the "Radar" for this DJ! What A MASSIVE Track! Honestly, I heard this song first in a 3 hour 15 Minute set by DJs Alex & Styline of ElectroDanceMovement and zipped to find the full mix!

Spun it now some dozen times =)

This is a "Jumping" Track that LITERALLY had me "Jumping" up-and-down the first time I heard it in bedroom! (I can be a tad ... eccentric when listening to music =3) Now I spin this track frequently and I am more than satisfied to have Your Music as part of my life. =) The production in fact was SO stellar--that honestly-- I was like...

"What Song is THAT!?" It was not until seeing the tracklisting Alex & Styline provided that I said aloud to myself, "That's Christina!?" For better or worse, although I do not quite live under a rock and do periodically tune into Pop Radio, I've not yet heard the original mix of this song. You're the first reason I love this song =3

Just noticed that after the song ended You do indeed have a show that I likely will listen into (Right now I'm seeing episode #12 for " Radio Seven ")

Keep the MASSIVE music coming m8tes and stay remarkable and true ^_^

STELLAR Track! Really enjoyed this one friends. =)
Keep the music coming =)

WHOOO HOOO!! HOLLY! HECK! O.O How on EARTH did I miss out on this tune before? =o JompaMusic! Many thanks for the shared "Contact With The Stars!" I'm Soaring through the Galaxy! T_T
I'm Physical! I'm Digital! I'm A TRANSFORMER! =3

On a more serious note, this is the VERY first time that I've ever heard of "Young Squage" or this song and the producer who remixed this song: "Steerner." So -- much passion shared for the intergalactic journey through and into Cyberspace =)

Now pardon me why I parody the lyrics that I first heard in the SUPER SET by Alex & Styline (in case you're curious -- I'm neither =3 I'm just Tiger ^_^) of the ElectroDanceMovement which lead me to this link ! =3
(The song was first heard in "New House & Dance Music Mix #77" set from them)

Was looking for the full long play version of this Remix and JompaMusic says:
"I uploaded it to YouTube" *In best Alvin & The Chipmunks voice" =)

Seriously: PARODY TIME! ^_^ (so childish...)

I'm a Princess mocked as a hag who owns the Pawn Shop on the corner~
I'm a General on a PC playing Command & Conquer
Like a Tadpole You thought was dead and threw back into the water

Whoa Whoa Whoa! I'm a (WHOOOPS! Probably don't wanna write that ^_^)

Happy New Year everybody! =) Stay Simply Divine =)

An interesting commercial. =) This is the very first time during Our Existence that so many excellent businesses focus on the " Humanity " of Our Progress + Our (here comes the word) "Products." For Toyota to allow comments is noticed. Awesome. Thumbs up on this video for that reality alone. Second is the story and education.

I did not know who "Tim Rice" was before seeing this commercial, and I honestly would like to say that I think very highly of any person, group or company that lets it be known that "Life is a journey" and that "No one has all of the answers."

Although born a "Digital Native" (according to Palfrey and Gasser), and certainly I have my disagreements with the outlook of this professional Extreme Sport Athlete-- I will say that I am glad that I have met him and have become aware of his triumphs.

There is little more to say than I am proud to be the "one-hundred-and-twelfth" person to "Like" this video and the 373rd-thousandth and 11th visitor to visit this link.

Please keep it up Toyota. ^_^ Many thanks for sharing this video and kudos to the New Year and the Engineering and Passion that went into bringing into Our Reality the "2014 4Runner" ^_^

Peace & Love.

Remain amazing

An interesting correlation and a very well stated "Set In Treads" commercial done in half a minute. =)
Nice. Indeed very nice. ^_^ My true curiosity however is in the automobile itself. Thinking of "The Rotary Brothers" in the anime Initial D and the neighbor who lived in the area where I grew up as a child...

will this replace RX-7?

This is yet to be seen and I ask this in a "Trend-Set" fashion.

Will the new "Skyactive" technologies and the performance of this car create another Mazda Classic that Electronic Arts may someday include in a future "Need For Speed" release ? 10 Years from now will we see this car in an anime ? Twenty Years from now will the "Presently New" "Mazda light-weight Skyactive implementation be recalled as the "Big Game Changer" 20 Years from now when Our current "Present" becomes Our "Past" ?

These are answers yet to become part of Our Existence.

Bruce Lee -- Timeless.

Will the Mazda3 in the future so be perceived ? ? ?

Many Thanks for sharing Ray The Video Guy. =) Honestly, found out about You while doing a Google Search wanting to see if it is OK with YouTube Policy to POST website links in comments. Learned something new here and respect Your caution at the very end of this video. Although it CAN be done -- using can still get flagged.

Honestly, I like to leave very honest feedback about with I think after I see a video or listen to a music set on YouTube. My curiosity is if at the end of my comments (I honestly have some that are over 100 lines long when passion-driven to write =3) if at the very bottom it is cool to put a link back to MENTION a website link I think may be helpful or link back to my site like a lot of Message Boards will allow (WITH an image for that matter that can be clicked).

Although the current accepted " trend-term " " Social Networking " rallies to define online communities merged with services like " Facebook " " YouTube " and " Myspace " .. I am sure You grew up knowing " BBS " and " Message Boards " as being the " Online Communities " Our Parents used to call Us " Anti-Socials " for wanting to be on and talk with Our friends from Europe to Japan to U.S.A. and back round to Australia, Africa then South America to that tiny " Science Facility " based in the middle of Antarctica the Web being a " Point-of-contact " for a shared love of Art, Science, :Literature or whatever the " Anti-Social BBS Message Board " (Or at least so dubbed ^^;) was all about. =3

It's awesome to me how we have " IM'ed" and " Typed " Our way into the " Public Mind " to where being on ahem " Social Networks " is not only " Cool " " Hip " " Easy " and the-ever-persistent-amazing " FUN! " -- But is also an " Expectation of Communication " for Our World no matter Your love:

" Business, Romance, Family, Social Gatherings and Community " =)

Got to love the way the world works =) sometimes only after being ridiculed or viewed past for a while =) if I were to post links in my comments. I see it's ok for descriptions here.

Many thanks for the Video Ray The Video Guy ^_^

Thank You for sharing Amanda !=D Nice website. ^_^ Learned something brand new =) Honestly found out about You just yesterday when the Google search was to find out if it is OK with YouTube's rules to post links in comments without getting suspended or account closure. Had not ever heard of "Fullwidth Text" before. =)

I actually saw somebody post a comment here recently that went to Soundcloud so perhaps YouTube is beginning to include some sites (outside of YouTube video links) that they do not flag -- but this is a nifty way to share a site -- any site. ^_^

Although " Social Networking " seems to be the "trend-term" now, "BBS Boards" and " Message Boards " honestly is what YouTube and the likes are and lots of those allow a "Link-Back" to any link including an image at the end of comments.

Wonder if we leave a website link at the very end of our comments (like this one), if we would get an account suspension or warning against our accounts here.

Thank You for the lovely lesson Ms. Evans and stay Beautiful =)

Indeed BestDocumentaryTV -- SO many thanks for taking the time to upload this! Personally think that there are many who did not recognize that Albert Einstein worked first as a Patent Clerk and outside of his initial field of study (Honestly as does 50 percent of College majors who graduate according to one research article).

What intrigues me about this documentary is the completion and perspective from so many individuals who give their own personal incite and understanding of who Albert Einstein is to them individually and collectively the Story of "How Waht We Know Came To Be Known " is shared with Our World within Existence =)

Many thanks BestDocumentaryTV for sharing this amazing Story with Our World! BBC! This is one of the most intriguing and superb television originals I have seen from Your excellent broadcast company since the tale of "Madame Bovary." This was a very different documentary than I initially thought and pleasantly so! =)

Indeed there is no question about it. =)

With Challenge comes Opportunity. Opposite sadness is Happiness.

Yin and Yang are one in-the-same and Light and Darkness are two sides of "One."

My personal belief is that "Video Games" may indeed be the proverbial "End of All Wars" that Einstein near the end of his Physical Existence (As We currently know and understand in Our World) requested to the White House

The same "bias" and "fiery disagreement" as well as "Passion For Nation" and "Thrill" are shared in competitive games about War and otherwise and just as any Sport -- I personally am seeing eSports slowly absorb the aptitude for World Wars.

(Hopefully we will not ever see a Third World War and in my humble opinion, it won't very likely if We continue to year by year "Live To Entertain" & "Entertain To Live")

Really enjoyed this Documentary and look forward to Our Bright Future on Planet E! ^^

Sincerely,

Excellent video Heineken, and a very interesting Experiment indeed. Excellent job no-questions-asked pinning my Capricorn Buddy with the U.S. President Name Association (Armin van Buuren) to Your "Science" =3 He really is into this kind of stuff

As a college accredited Psychologist (finally) now in Our World I would like to share that my personal deduction of this "effect" truly and honestly is "thrill" vs. "bore."

It's the same for sex. The same for "Hardcore Video gaming " (of which I am culprit).

The same for boring film versus interesting reading or intriguing movie vs. bland read. Just about anything that is sociologically "Entertaining" is comparable and in the end -- the one most Entertaining is selected. In this experiment: "Music" is picked.

What surprises and "Thrills" me honestly in this campaign and Scientific / Art presentation (yes the commercial ^_^) is that the message is "It's OK to not drink " a great deal or even at all -- if you're having a good time for whatever reason. This commercial helps to headbutt the " they-only-want-to-sell " assumption most often made of not only beverage companies as yourself-- but also clubs.

This half-wittingly reminds me of the Verizon Wireless " Don't Drive And Text " film in a very positive association. =) It communicates " We Care about People " (Not just people who purchase what is sold by the company with the advertisement)

Indeed Our World is becoming VERY interesting. =)

Hope there are many who are glad to be born in this exciting day and age =)

There is no " Weird " or " Spooky " Action between particles and atoms. =(
" Entanglement " is how " Atoms " and unseen particles " Have Sex " ^_^
After the action they share in " close range " -- they remember each other. =)
It's actually kind of " Particle-ly " romantic when you think about it. " Won't forget. "

Sincerely and honestly this is an AMAZING Documentary WGBH! ^_^
Was thinking the WHOLE time how " Our Digital Universe " works like that!
(Copy Past! ^_^ Moving digital audio "particles " / "matter " from CD to MP3)

Grew up on PBS and early morning shows on HBO and Nickelodeon and glad to see this shall be a practice in Our Current age as well! =D For those who decide to view! =3
(Freedom of Choice seemingly is part of Our World's Physical Equation ^_^)

* Shrugs * =) Sometimes the emotional importance of music is more interesting than the cold cut edge of politics. Had this 26 second video skit on YouTube had a name besides " Justin Bieber " in the title -- love him or hate him it is doubtful that over 5 million people would have viewed it! (5 Days / 5 Mil+ views)

It is NOT like online video networks like YouTube are television either. People INTENTIONALLY clicked this link -- it wasn't an " ad " or " TV Broadcast " The VIDEO is of footage FROM a Television Broadcast ... but this 26 second video was intentionally viewed by going on 6 million people worldwide. Is this bad?

Personally speaking for me, I believe it is far better for our world to enjoy being entertained instead of spending valuable moment in life crying over milk spilled.

"When You spill milk -- simply pour some more." Speaking only for me--I applaud Our World's progress-- We select what we want to watch. There is no reason to complain over what YOU decided to watch. Don't turn on the TV if you don't want to see it. Don't click the link if not caring.

Thank You for sharing jonmanization. =)

Happy New Year Everyone =)
